

2026 Board of Directors Nominations Form

Please use this form to nominate yourself or another NACCHO member.

2026 Open Board Positions

Open positions are created when Board members cycle through their term of office or depart their Board role due to retirement or a different position. Regional and/or At Large directors are elected to three-year terms and may serve up to two full terms. Vice President candidates are elected to a one-year term but are expected to serve subsequent terms in the President-Elect, President, and Immediate Past President roles. Currently, candidates may run for any of the following positions:

- Three (3) Regional Director representatives for the following HHS Regions who shall represent the interests of the members, including state associations of county and city health officials, within their region and serve a three-year term from July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2029:
 - Region 4 (AL, FL, GA, Ky, MS, NC, SC, TN)
 - Region 8 (ND, SD, CO, WY, MT, UT)
 - Region 9 (AZ, CA, HI, NV)
- Two (2) At Large Director representatives for the following size jurisdictions representing specific populations and serve a three-year term from July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2029:
 - At-Large (50 -100K)
 - At-Large (1M -Over)
- One (1) position of Vice President who will serve a four-year cycle beginning as Vice-President, then President-elect, then President, and then Immediate Past President beginning on July 1, 2026 and ending on June 30, 2030.
 - Vice President (current or prior experience on the NACCHO Board of Directors is required)

Eligibility Requirements

- Membership on NACCHO's Board of Directors is limited to local health officials (top ranking executive in the agency) whose health departments are members in good standing (i.e. active/current dues-paying).
- Candidates for Vice President must have current or prior experience serving on the NACCHO Board of Directors.

Nominations and Election Timeline

Nominations are currently being sought for three (3) open Regional Director positions across the country and two (2) At-Large positions. All positions serve three-year terms beginning July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2029. Nominations will close on Tuesday, March 31, 2026.
