42% of all opioid overdose deaths in the Mystic Valley were trades workers.*

Good Samaritan Law: protects the caller and overdose victim from arrest in time of emergency, except when active warrants, trafficking/selling are involved, or conflict is caused with police.