

Apply for NACCHO's 2024-2025 Virtual Learning Collaborative

NACCHO, with support from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Division of Reproductive Health, is recruiting members for a Virtual Learning Collaborative (VLC) to cross-train maternal and child health (MCH) and emergency preparedness and response (EPR) professionals at local health departments (LHDs). Participants will integrate MCH considerations into emergency preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation efforts through training modules and interactive hands-on exercises.

The VLC will run from January to July 2025 and will comprise staff representing MCH and EPR departments at LHDs. We are requesting one MCH and one EPR staff member from each LHD to participate in the entire training series together to ensure successful collaboration and equitable cross-training efforts. Each application should include information for both the MCH staff member and the EPR staff member that would participate in the collaborative together if selected. Please only complete one application per LHD.

Please apply by Monday, December 16th, 2024 at 11:59 PM PST.
