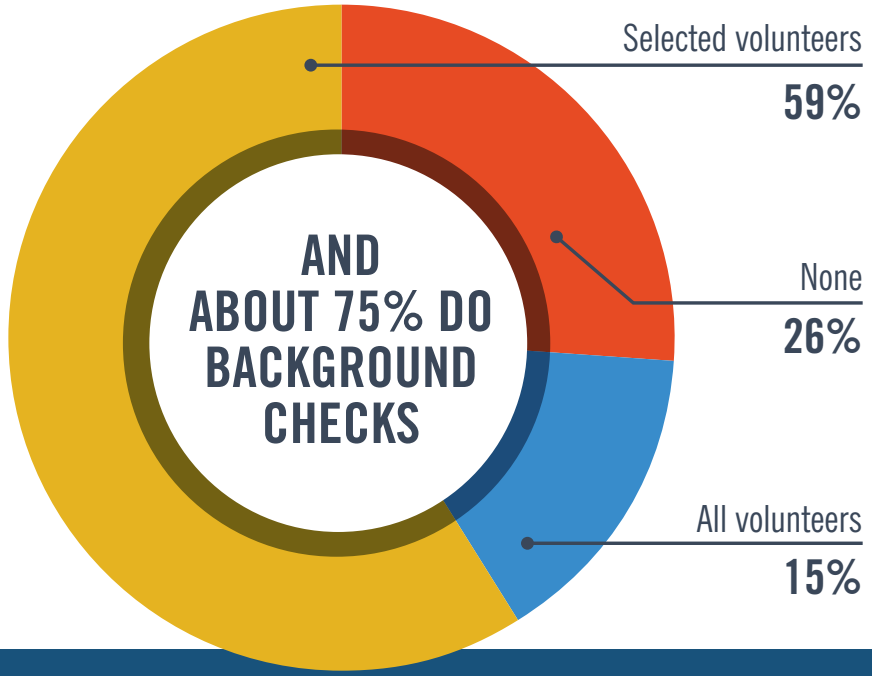
CONNECTING WITH COMMUNITIES: THE 2015 NETWORK PROFILE OF THE MEDICAL RESERVE CORPS

Volunteers at the ready

Vetting volunteers through background checks and confirming credentials for medical professionals interested in joining an MRC unit is part of any unit's procedures. Units verify medical credentials of their medical volunteers through state registry, the ESAR-VHP system, or independent means.

96%

of unit leaders confirm their volunteer's medical credentials



The number of units that do not verify medical credentials decreased from 6% in 2013 to 4% in 2015.
