

Student Section

Program

The NACCHO Student Section Program provides public health students with resources and a collaborative environment to support and promote best practices for community health while fostering a network for the next generation of local health leaders.

@nacchoalerts

membership@naccho.org

1201 Eye St NW, 4th Floor,
Washington, DC 20005

[www.naccho.org/membership/
student-section](http://www.naccho.org/membership/student-section)

Connect With Us!

Public Health[®]
Prevent. Promote. Protect.

Learn more about our annual conferences at www.NACCHO.org

NACCHOSM
National Association of County & City Health Officials

About NACCHO (NAY-cho)

The National Association of County & City Health Officials (NACCHO) is the only organization dedicated to serving every local health department in the nation.

NACCHO is the leader in providing cutting-edge, skill-building, professional resources and programs, seeking health equity and supporting effective local public health practices and systems.

Student Leadership

Roles:

- Chair
- Vice-Chair
- Secretary
- Marketing Lead

The Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Marketing Lead act as the Student Leadership Council to guide NACCHO's support of student membership. The Student Leadership Council takes charge in student programming and membership development, assessing the needs of our student members and directing the future of our Student Section Program. Leaders are appointed annually by the student members.

Membership

There are two ways to join:

1. Individual Student
2. Schools of Public Health –

For every 10 students, the SPH receives 1 faculty membership

* Contact your advisor to check if your SPH is already a member!

Objectives

Build a diverse network of students that are passionate about the health & safety of their communities

Engage students with exceptional opportunities to enhance their public health education

Provide a platform for students to broaden their professional network and launch a career in local public health

What is the Student Section?

NACCHO's Student Section Program connects public health students nationally, fostering a network of students to take charge in member engagement, collective learning and service within local public health.

Questions?

membership@naccho.org | 877-533-1320

Member Benefits

• Network

with other public health students and professionals through the NACCHO Student Section Virtual Community

• Access

all NACCHO resources, including educational/ professional trainings, workshops, & webinars

• Learn

about the current public health work and advocacy taking place at local, state and national levels

• Engage

with other Student Section members on identified, student-driven initiatives of interest

• Apply

within NACCHO's Career Center to nation-wide internship and career opportunities

• Participate

in NACCHO conferences by submitting poster and session abstracts, with discounted student registration rates available

