

HEALTH & DISABILITY

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

TAKE THE NEXT BIG STEP TOWARDS YOUR FUTURE CAREER IN PUBLIC HEALTH

ELIGIBILITY

- Graduate students (pursuing Masters or PhD degree) in public health or related field
- Ability to commit 15-20 hours per week

BENEFITS

- Daily immersion within professional public health setting
- Positions offer a stipend and travel expenses to one conference or meeting

REQUIREMENTS

- Completion of fellow assessments
- Routine supervisor check-ins and timely submission of all projects

LOCATION & DATES

- Based in NACCHO Washington, D.C. office or remotely from graduate school (nationwide)
- Begins September 2017 and runs through June 29, 2018

NACCHO HEALTH & DISABILITY FELLOWS WILL:

- Engage with renowned leaders in the health and disability field
- Provide technical assistance and develop resources, guides, and toolkits on disability inclusion for local health departments
- Develop disability inclusion tools for local health departments
- Refine technical writing, research, and presentation skills
- Get hands on experience in public health practice and policy
- Contribute to NACCHO digital and print publications
- Represent NACCHO at national conferences and meetings

TO APPLY

To view more details about the fellowship and complete an application, please visit http://bit.ly/NACCHOFellows

NACCHO ONLINE

www.naccho.org

@nacchohq

ABOUT NACCHO

The National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO) is a nonprofit based in Washington, D.C. serving a membership of nearly 3,000 local health departments across the country. Striving to be the voice for local public health, NACCHO aims to advance health equity, combat disease, and improve the quality of life for all Americans.

NACCHO's Health and Disability Fellowship is supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Cooperative Agreement #5NU38OT000172-04-00.

